

determination of its duration, and must be filed in the same district where the prisoner is incarcerated.” Pack v. Yusuff, 218 F.3d 448, 451 (5th Cir. 2000) (citations omitted). To entertain a habeas corpus petition under 28 U.S.C. § 2241, “the district court must, upon the filing of the petition, have jurisdiction over the prisoner or his custodian.” United States v. Gabor, 905 F.2d 76, 78 (5th Cir. 1990) (citation omitted). Torres reports that he is currently incarcerated at the Segovia Unit in Edinburg, Texas. That facility is located in Hidalgo County, which is within the jurisdictional limits of the United States District Court for the Southern District of Texas, McAllen Division. 28 U.S.C. § 124(b)(7). Because the applicant is not incarcerated within the Southern District of Texas, Houston Division, this Court has no jurisdiction over the subject matter of the pending habeas corpus petition. See Gabor, 905 F.2d at 78.

The district court for the district wherein an application for habeas corpus relief has been filed may, in the exercise of its discretion and in furtherance of justice, transfer the petition to another appropriate district court for hearing and determination. See 28 U.S.C. § 2241(d). It appears that the interests of justice would be served if this petition were transferred to the district where petitioner is incarcerated.

Therefore, the Clerk is ORDERED to transfer this petition for a writ of habeas corpus to the Clerk of the United States District Court for the Southern District of Texas, McAllen Division.

It is further ORDERED that the petitioner’s motion for leave to proceed in forma pauperis (Docket Entry No. 2) is GRANTED.

The Clerk's Office will send a copy of this order to the parties.

SIGNED at Houston, Texas, on this 27th day of April, 2005.

Nancy F. Atlas
United States District Judge
